Certificate

Fundamentals

User Rene@Karkkainen.net has completed 100% of section Fundamentals.

100 %

Description:

Start here. In this course, we go through important basics that enable in-depth learning of increasingly complex topics in information security. The course is intended for students who are new to information technology.

Completed modules:

✔ What is ethical hacking? ✔ Important warning

✔ Linux operating system ✔ Linux Command Line - video

- First touch to the command line
- Navigating the command line
- Creating folders
- Creating and editing files
- Controlling the output
- Moving files and folders
- Deleting files and folders
- File system permissions
- How the Internet works - video
- The beginning of the Internet
- The structure of information networks
- Internet addresses
- Client-server model
- BurpSuite: installation and usage video
- A few words about tools
- BurpSuite: Installation
- First touch with BurpSuite
- Kali Linux virtualization video
- Browser side and server side
- URL structure
- HTTP protocol
- HTTP methods
- HTTP headers
- HTTP status codes
- Cookies
- HTML markup language

✓ JavaScript	✓ Vulnerabilities
✓ Hack into a website	✓ What next?